

Harmen Grebel

Nationality: Dutch

Harmen was born and raised in the Netherlands. He joined the Fontys International Health Projects / MeduProf-S team as International Project Manager in August 2008. His responsibilities also include recruiting and planning the staff for all projects as the Human Capital Manager. His expertise lies in:

- Change Management and Human Resource Development and Management, based on education and experience as director HRM at the Fontys University
- Program and project management based on several national and international projects
- Curriculum development in social work and health care education, based on several projects for universities in the Netherlands and Mozambique

Harmen was educated at the Faculty of Social Sciences, State University in Groningen, in The Netherlands where he achieved a Master in Change Management. In 2001 he completed a masters Degree in Learning and Development at the TIAS/Nimbas Institute in Tilburg, The Netherlands.