

MEDICAL INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY

Target group: Biomedical Engineers and Technicians working in a hospital maintenance workshop with proven ICT skills.

On completion of the course you will have knowledge about:

- Different ICT developments in hospitals
- Hospital decision support systems

On completion of the course you will be able to:

- Practice with hospital decision support systems
- Maintain hospital decision support systems

Content:

This part is centered round the ICT developments in hospitals. Communication, information databases and maintenance. The development and practice of decision support systems are part of this module.

Schedule:

Total duration	2 weeks
Number of participants	24 (maximum)