

RADIOLOGY

GETTING STARTED IN PAEDIATRIC RADIOLOGY

Target group: Paediatricians, paediatric surgeons, residents in paediatrics, paediatric surgery and radiology

On completion of the course you will be able to:

- Understand the basic concepts of the different radiology techniques
- Diagnose the most common diseases

Content:

- Physics of commonly used radiology techniques
- Patient care, radiation dose and safety issues
- Indications and contraindications of the different techniques
- Radiology of neonates with acute respiratory insufficiency
- Radiology of children with acute respiratory insufficiency
- Radiology of the acute abdomen
- Interactive sessions

Schedule:

- Course duration 1 week
- Number of participants 24 (maximum)